

BARBERRY ROAD

MORRIS TOWNSHIP, NEW JERSEY

Connolly &
Hickey
HISTORICAL ARCHITECTS

Barberry Road Residence, was originally constructed in the early-20th century as the Junior Clubhouse for the Morris County Golf Club, after a fire that destroyed other sections of the Clubhouse, the building was converted as a private residence.

- Services: Schematic Design, Design Development, Contract Documents, Bidding and Contract Administration.
- Residential Alterations including demolition of existing one-story sunroom addition and detached garage; construction of a one-story kitchen/family room with full basement, breezeway, and two-bay garage; and interior and exterior renovations including structural upgrades, installation of a new HVAC system, installation of new lighting, receptacles, and other electrical and plumbing upgrades.