

BRINKERHOFF HOUSE

WOOD-RIDGE BOROUGH, BERGEN COUNTY, NEW JERSEY

The former Brinkerhoff House currently serves as the Wood-Ridge Memorial Library. The house was converted to library use in the 1950s and was expanded in 2000. The house is beloved in the community and the Borough is planning an expansion to serve a growing Wood-Ridge Community.

Photo Credit: Wood-Ridge Historical Society

- Services: Historic Preservation Plan, Contract Documents, Bidding, Contract Administration Services, and Schematic Design for a library addition.
- Construction: Exterior Restoration of the Historic Core including masonry restoration, repair of windows and doors, structural upgrades, and roof restoration.
- Total Project Costs: $492,994
- Total Grant Funding: $240,300 (Bergen County)