

SEWARD HOUSE

MOUNT OLIVE TOWNSHIP, MORRIS COUNTY, NEW JERSEY

The Seward House in Mount Olive was constructed circa 1860 in two campaigns for Henry and Beulah Seward. The large stone residence with strong Italianate architectural influences at its exterior and interior detailing and its interior layout. The property remained in the Seward family until 1939. Mount Olive aquired the property in 1996 and it is part of Turkey Brook Park.

- Services: National Register Nomination, Historic Preservation Plan, stabilization and contract documents, and bidding and contract administration.
- Construction: Stabilization, structural upgrades, and partial exterior restoration (ongoing multi-phase restoration).
- Total Project Grants: $750,000 (New Jersey Historic Trust and Morris County Historic Preservation Trust)
- Total Project Costs: $500,000 (to date)